digital creative agency

ONCE UPON A DIGITAL AGE...

...took place inception of a marketing agency: a brainchild of ardent business student.

Continued success and perseverance saw this juvenile agency transform into a digital creative agency in the wake of 2013.

Five years of resilience and hard work, a few broken laptops, and just over a thousand coffee cups later...

SOCIALSELLISM

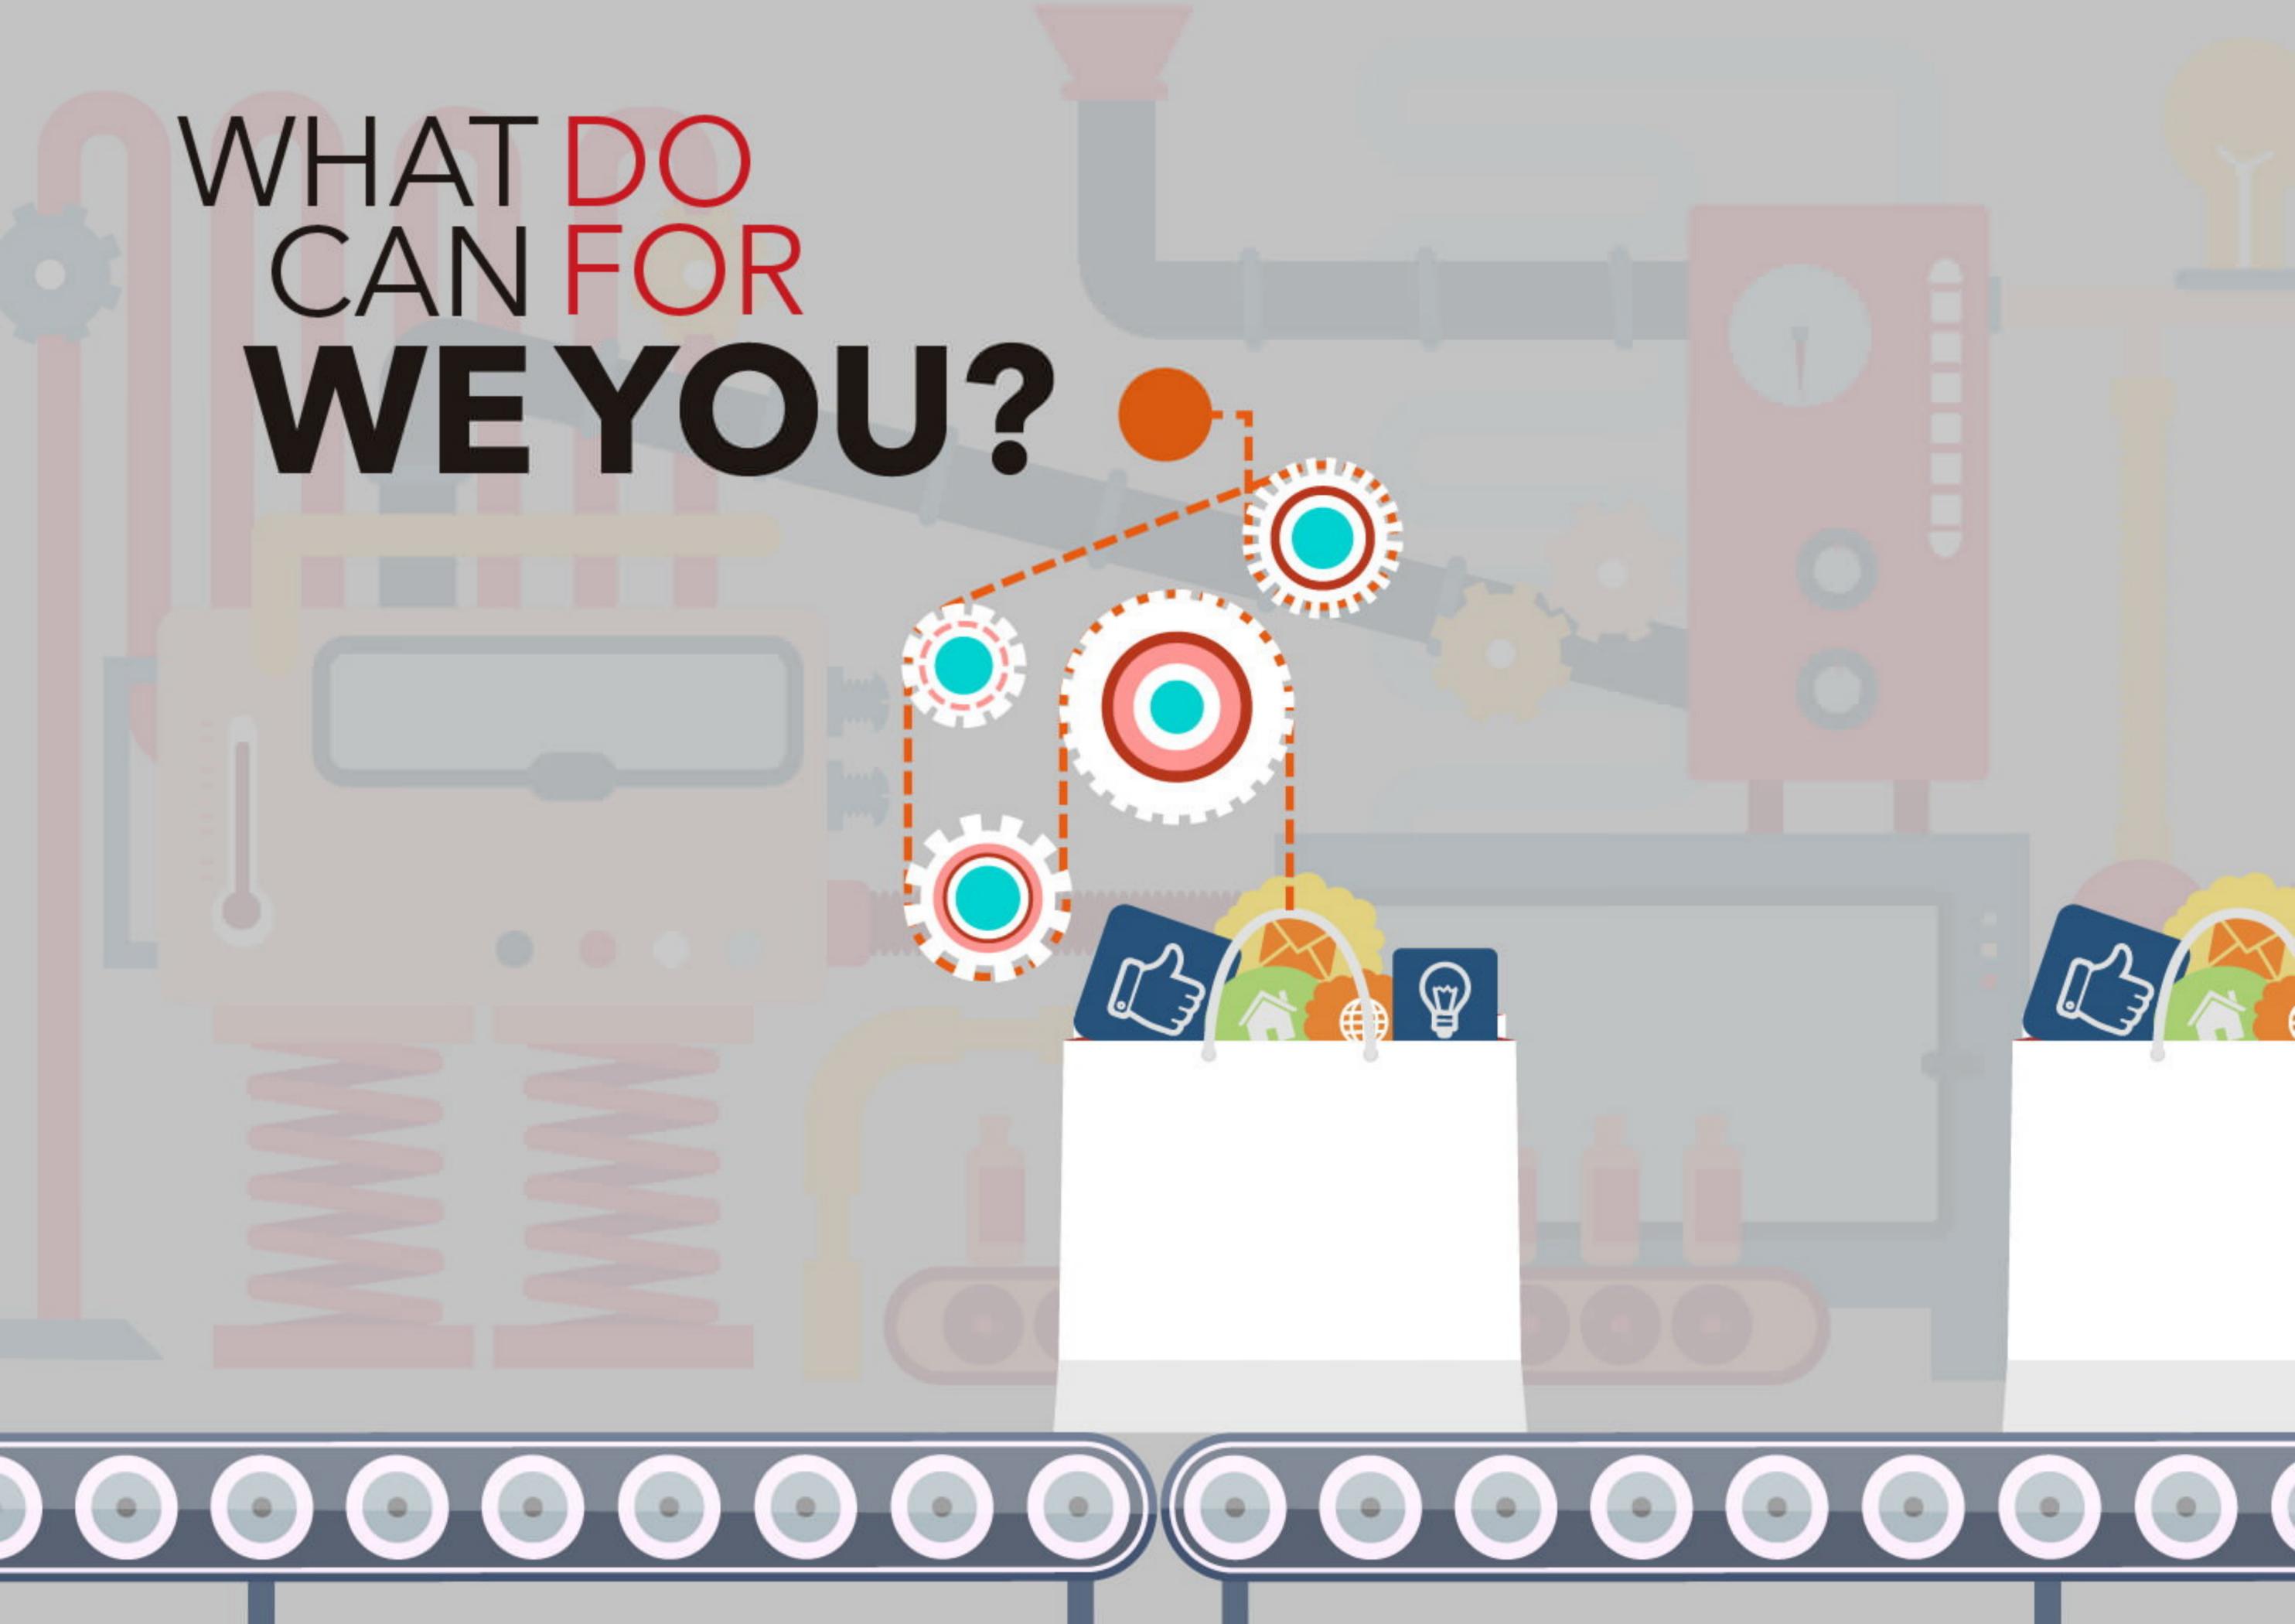

Fresh ideas topped with that extra spice, audience engagement and that extra mile, and lending our collective ears to your needs is our forte.

You can count on us for providing you with immaculate solutions.

We don't try to be the best, we try to be efficient, to address the lingering deficient. And we can bet our ridiculously large coffee mugs that you'll leave with nothing short of lasting impression and a desire to continue working with us.

already for government to a Qrop prior to Sept 7, the normal rules around Qrops and how you can take the pension benefits will apply. "This is also dependent upon the jurisdiction of the Qrop, and the jurisdiction where the policyholder is tax

For schemes, it would have to come up with the resources. "In theory, under EU law, you are allowed freedom of transfer of pensions across EU member states, so it appears to contravene EU law." The numbers involved are significant, and could result in billions of pounds being lost to the Treasury if a number of people had decided they wanted to those professions tomorrow. So allowing a fund transfer would mean the Government coming up with the cash. Justin Harris, managing director of Chase Belgrave, said: "The lesson from this episode should be that the pensions environment in the UK is highly fluid. Just as the removal of the bulk of the Australian Qrops showed, possibilities can and do change.

"Expats should not delay in exploring the options available to them. It is also more important than ever to retain specialist financial advice. It is not enough to assume that a particular course of action may or may not be possible or prudent." Some people did manage to take advantage of the loophole to move their scheme before it was closed. Once their transfer is complete they will need to consider what to do with their pension next. James McLeod, head of pensions at AES International, said: "Those people lucky enough to have squeezed through HMRC's ultimate cut off point on September 7 will now have almost complete control over their pensions, for the first time.

"The list of investments permitted under the Rops [the new name for Qrops] legislation is very similar to that offered under the UK's Sipp rules and so is very wide indeed. "Investors will be able to build an investment portfolio which should allow them to continue to grow their capital, while also taking an income - although this of course depends very much on the size of the pot to begin with.
